RENREN CHINESE 人人中文

CHIEF EDITOR JEAN CHENG JOINT EFFORTS OF IMMERSION CHINESE TEAM MEMBERS

Ray Chinese School P.O.Box 4018 Naperville, IL 60567

630-401-9851 rcsonline@yahoo.com

A MONTHLY JOURNAL FOR CHINESE LEARNERS

Ray Chinese School News And Events

• Ray Chinese School starts accepting students for Chinese courses and after school program in its learning center.

Learning center locates at : 6442 College Rd, Lisle, IL 60532. Class time is between 3:00pm and 6:00pm from Monday to Friday. For more information, please email to info@raychineseschool.org.

- A kindly reminder: Sunday, 9/15/2013 is the last day for tuition payment. There is a 10% late fee added to your tuition if payment is paid after September 15th.
- September 19th is the Mid-Autumn Festival. Ray Chinese School has a moon cake sale at Kennedy location on Saturday, September 14th and possibly September 21 also.

Fun Facts about Chinese Language

- a) The Chinese value their traditions and history after all, they have a recorded history of almost 5000 years. There's a certain richness in all the expressions and idioms of a language as old as Mandarin. For instance, the word for "computer" is 电脑, (pronounced as diàn nǎo) which literally means "electric brain". "telephone" is 电话 (pronounced as diànhuà) which literally means "electric words". "movie" is 电影 (pronounced as diànyǐng) which literally means "electric image" – clever, isn't it?
- b) Chinese script originally used pictographs, a picture for a word (or character). Many characters are still recognizable, such as 木(wood), 林 (woods) and 森( forest). Do you see the logic and images from these words? one木is wood, two木are woods and three 木are forest!

RENREN CHINESE 人人中文

Page 2

What's in a Chinese Character What's in a Chinese Character

月光: moonlight

Word of the Month

month) man chose the crescent. The original pictograph suggested two phases of a waxing new moon. Tilting it and then directing it earthwards; 月 exposed man to the influence of moonbeam radiation – with striking consequences.

To form the character for moon (or lunar

.Practice Chinese Characters here:

RCS Calendar and Holidays

Septmber 2013

October 2013

日		 	Ξ	四	Ŧ.	六	日		 	Ξ	四	Ŧ
l No Chinese School	2	3	4	5	6	7 Chinese School			I	2	3	4	5
8 Chinese School	9	10	П	12	13	14 Chinese School	6 Chinese School	7	8	9	10	11
15 Chinese School	16	17	18	19 moon Festival	20	21 Chinese School	13 Chinese School	14	15	16	17	18
22 Chinese School	23	24	25	26	27	28 Chinese School	20 Chinese School	21	22	23	24	25
29 Chinese School	30						27 Chinese School	28	29	30	31 Hal- loween

Happy Mid-autumn Festival!

zhōng qiū jié kuài lè

中秋节快乐!

Chinese Mid-autumn Festival is on the 15th of the 8th lunar month. It's also known as the Moon Festival. Chinese culture is deeply imbedded in traditional festivals. Just like Christmas and Thanksgiving in the west, the Moon Festival is one of the most important traditional events for the Chinese. The following picture gallery shows a few traditional activities Chinese people do to celebrate the holiday. Sit back and enjoy the poetical pictures.

Family gets together to drink tea and eat moon cakes under the bright moonlight.

 Moonlight on this night is so bright. Its beauty arouses many poets to write about the night. One of the most famous verses is 海上 生明月, 天涯共此时, which means 'the bright moon is rising over the sea. People share this moment from the corners of the world'.

editor's Desk We like to recommend a Moon Festival video for you to watch: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zGL3IB8njOM